TRACTION PARK FLOODED; MEET FIELD CHANGED

Intercollegiate Events to Be Staged at University; Railways Make Reduced Fares for Visitors.

Owing to Traction park being under water on account of the recent rains, it has been found necessary to hold the intercollegiate track meet at the varsity athletic field.

New bleachers are being erected and the track is rapidly being put in shape. Arrangements are also being made to have ample "Friday" service to the University Friday and Saturday.

The entries in the meet are beginning to arrive. Roswell is bringing practically the same team of fourteen men that took the contest last year. Santa Fe will send twelve and word has been received definitely from Denning that five contestants will represent that city. Albuquerque high school will enter the maximum number of fourteen men.

A special attraction for the young athletes will be the interclass debate in Rodey hall Friday evening, by the members of Professor Bonnett's class on each side. Five minutes being allowed for main speeches, and one rebuttal for each side of five minutes being allowed. The entire contest will be over in little more than an hour.

Resides this, it is expected that Harry L. Heinemann, western traveling secretary of the Y. M. C. A., the man who started the local organization at the university in the fall of 1913, will deliver a talk the evening of the debate, and will make use of the time to speak with the high school representatives during their stay here. Mr. Heinemann arrives in Albuquerque Thursday evening and will be here during the time of the whole meet.

TORRES IS FAVORITE OVER SALVATORE AT 5 TO 3 IN ST. JOSEPH

Despite the fact that both he and Johnny Salvatore, the St. Paul welterweight, have decisions over Bud Logan, Jack Torres is quoted as a 5 to 3 favorite in St. Joseph. However, there is not a lot of Torres money in sight as Salvatore's victory over Logan has inspired St. Joe admirers for Torres with a little caution.

Torres reached St. Joe last Friday and began training at once. He gave it out that he was in pretty fair condition, but was going to work up in the last minute. Mike Sheehan is working with him. Salvatore has been training in secret.

The fight will be for fifteen rounds.
